New members

During March we welcome Melony & Emma Renfrow into membership in our church family. Melony joined by transfer from Center Pointe Christian Church in Lexington. She is a nurse at James Graham Brown Cancer Center at Taylor Regional Hospital. Emma joined by profession of faith and baptism. She is a fourth grader at Green County Intermediate.

Council meeting . . .

During the March council meeting, we voted to emphasize our need for prayer especially during the time leading up to Easter. We've already had one prayer vigil and will have another one on Wednesday, April 16. That prayer vigil will run from 7:00 a.m.-7:00 p.m. that day and additionally, the sanctuary will be open for prayer every Wednesday during Lent. In our sanctuary we have a "prayer wall" which contains prayer requests that have come in from our church as well as many that have come from outside the church. This past Sunday, folks from our congregation took turns praying at the altar all during the worship service and we will do this again this upcoming Sunday. Please see Tammy Davis if you have suggestions of questions about our upcoming prayer vigil.

Forget the Frock

Patti Strader has challenged us to get involved with a program entitled, "Forget the Frock, Feed an Orphan." You can get more information online at feedtheorphans.org Instead of buying new Easter clothes, she challenged us to spend that money on this organization. If you want to give through the church, please mark your check or envelope accordingly and we'll forward it. Giving information is also available online. If you give through the church, please do so by Sunday, April 13.

Children's video

The children of our church are starting in a video in which they recite the scripture of the Easter story. Please see Mandy Goff if you have questions. This will be shown on Palm Sunday, April 13.

Easter lilies

We are ordering lilies to be in our sanctuary Easter Sunday. You may order one in memory or in honor of someone. The cost is $13.00 each and the deadline to order is Sunday, April 13.
